12th - 13th ROBERT A. SIEGEL AUCTION GALLERIES
(New York, NY: Sale Nos. 911-913)

Three important sales of prime United States and Worldwide Postage Stamps and Postal History, all included in a sale heralded as the company's traditional and much anticipated annual RARITIES OF THE WORLD auction and "philatelic happening", a Standing-Room-Only event.

Sale No. 911 - The Elliot H. Coulter Collection of the United States 1869 Pictorial Issue, Including the renowned Exhibit of Usages Around the World.

A well-known and very wonderful collection that has remained intact since Mr. Coulter's untimely passing in 1987 at the young age of 63.

Sale No. 912 – The United States "Rush" 1847 Cover. A single-lot (Lot No. 501) sale offered in a scholastically-presented, well-illustrated, and otherwise very luxurious hardbound 30-page catalog containing much reference data, assuring that this catalog will become a standard reference for many, many years. Scott R. Trepel and his personnel are to be complimented on their professional management of this very important consignment.

The importance of this postal history item is echoed in the introduction to the catalog, which quotes a comment from a well-respected United States philatelist from years past: "We consider this the most important cover known to American Philately." – Philip H. Ward Jr., May 1944.

The "Rush" 1847 cover is named as such because it was posted by Benjamin Rush in Philadelphia to his father, Richard Rush, the American Minister to France, addressed to Paris with Benjamin's instructions written on the face of the cover: "Via New York, British Mail Steamer of the 27th Septem. 'Europa'". The Europa, which departed from the Cunard's docks at Jersey City on Wednesday, 27th September 1848, arrived at Liverpool, England on 9th October.

The cover is franked with the 1847 10¢ black Washington first issue (Sc 2) as a horizontal Strip-of-6 with the inter-pane sheet margin at the right; the third stamp from the left, Position 57L, is the so-called "Hairlip" variety. The stamps are all tied by multiple strikes of a red "5" within a circle oblit, and has a matching "PHILADA. RAILROAD" straight-line handstamp applied at the New York City post office.

The cover's Estimated Value is $1,000,000-1,500,000.

Sale No. 913 - The 2006 RARITIES OF THE WORLD. Over 1,000 lots of prime Postage Stamps and Postal History, highlighted by several specialized collections and other consignments, to include:

 The United States 1918 Inverted "Jenny" (Position 40).

 The highlights of the Leonard Beck United States Collection.

 The highlights of the "J & J" Collection of United States Stamps and Covers, including the Magnificent 1847 Issue Corner-Margin Stamps.

 The "Newly-Discovered" Used Example of the United States 1851 1¢ Type I, Position 7R1E (Scott 5).

 The highlights of the "Saddleback" Collection of United States Coils, Booklet Panes, and Postal Cards.

 The "Shapiro" Collection of United States Complete Sheets.
