13th - 14th SPINK - SHREVES GALLERIES (Dallas, TX)

An important offering of the 'Sovereign' *Collection of the Postage Stamps of the British Commonwealth and Western Europe, which is being sold for the benefit of the Smithsonian National Postal Museum.

The 'Sovereign' Collection was formed over a period of several decades by a meticulous American collector, his goal being to obtain as many different mint stamps as is possible for most countries of the British Empire. He succeeded, as the collection apparently includes innumerable stamps that are almost never seen on the market today, whether they catalog £250 (+$500), or £50,000 (+$100,000). In addition to stamps from the British Empire, the collector also formed valuable collections of stamps from selected European countries, with particular emphasis on Germany and the German Colonies.

The owner of the 'Sovereign' Collection, who wishes to remain anonymous, donated his entire collection to the Smithsonian National Postal Museum in Washington, DC, so that its sale at public auction would benefit the important work the Museum provides to philatelists, both in the United States and around the world.

Catalogs are $20.00 for the 'Sovereign' Collection ($30.00 for non-US addresses). To order a copy of the all-color catalog, contact Spink Shreves Galleries via telephone, E-Mail, or by filling out an order form found on their "Auction Catalog" WebPage, and then clicking on the 'Order Current Catalog' button.
