It is anticipated that the final realizations from the sale of his Great Britain collection will result in potentially the largest single donation ever made in the United States to the international medical humanitarian organization, and will be given as an unrestricted gift by Mr. Gross and his wife, Sue Gross.

The William H. Gross Great Britain Collection will be sold in two auction sessions (two printed volumes):

Volume 1 — Devoted to Exceptional Line Engraved Rarities

Volume 1 is devoted to 77 lots of many of the most famous Line Engraved rarities recorded (1840 'Penny Blacks', 'Two Penny Blues', and the Mulreadys).

Volume 2 — Featuring Outstanding Great Britain Mint Singles, 1847-1929

The second of two volumes prepared for the auction features an extraordinary range of 126 lots, each being a highly desirable mint example of many of the rarest, or finest recorded quality, stamps of Great Britain to have come on the philatelic auction arena in many years.

The collection includes some magnificent items, to include a 'Penny Black' Block-of-18 that is one of the largest multiples extant for the issue outside of collector-unavailable museums pieces, a rare 1904 6d stamp intended only for government use, and a Cover bearing the world's first three postage stamps (a 'Penny Black', a 'Two Penny Blue' issued at the same time, and a 'Penny Red', issued a year later).

NOTE: The entire William H. Gross Collections of Great Britain can be viewed on the Shreves Philatelic Galleries WebSite [see below].
