

Nazi dictatorship reflected in documents of postal communication

Explorations in the border area of philately and history

The project consists of two parts. Part I: German Jews 1933 to 1945 will be presented at the Education and Culture Centre of the Jewish Museum Prague on March 12 and April 18, 2007

Structure

1. Postal communication as an instrument of Nazi propaganda

2. From discrimination to genocide

Economic boycott

Nuremberg Laws

Elimination of Jews from German economic life

Jewish physicians and dentists eliminated

Passports marked with a "J"

Polenweisung - Expulsion of Jews of Polish descent

The pogroms of November 9, 1938 and the deportation of Jewish men

Jewish lawyers eliminated

Compulsory names Sara and Israel

Yellow star

Deportations

Last message

The great journey. For example family Lewin

Where are our relatives? Letters to the Reichsvereinigung

3. Jews surviving in Nazi-Germany

"Legal" Jews

Jews in illegality

4. Emigration

United States

France

Palestine

Italy

Switzerland, Sweden

Britain, Australia

Shanghai

Part II: Nazi dictatorship - the European dimension is not completed yet. It is scheduled to contain the chapters: Mobile killing units - Ghettos and transition camps - Concentration and extermination camps - Political jurisdiction, prisons - Forced labour.

The author welcomes critique and suggestions as well as postal items and other documents relevant to the theme "Nazi dictatorship".

Address: Heinz Wewer, Mörchinger Str. 43 g, D-14169 Berlin, Germany

Phone and Fax: ++49-30-812 02 02, e-mail: he.wewer@t-online.de