

FIP Thematic Philately Commission

Open Seminar Tuesday 11th May

10:30 - 13:30

Business Design Centre - Meeting Room C

4th Generation of Thematic Exhibits

The seminar is open for the public and will address thematic exhibitors and apprentice jurors to the thematic class. The outline for the seminar is to deal with competitive Thematic Philately from a modern perspective, the “4th Generation of Thematic Exhibits”. The seminar will be conducted by the following representatives from the FIP Thematic Philately Commission:

Jonas Hällström [Sweden] as seminar chairperson

- FEPA's representative to the bureau of the FIP Thematic Philately Commission
- FIP Accredited juror for Thematic Philately

Christine A. Earle [United Kingdom]

- UK national representative to the FIP Thematic Philately Commission
- FIP Accredited juror for Thematic Philately

Vojtech Jankovic [Slovakia]

- Slovak national representative to the FIP Thematic Philately Commission
- Jury apprentice in the Thematic class in the jury for LONDON 2010

Seminar agenda

10:30-11:15	Today's generation of thematic exhibits and thematic exhibiting from a different perspective , by Jonas Hällström
11:15-12:00	Thematic development shown by the concept of a thematic exhibit: the Plan, the Development and the Thematic knowledge, by Christine A. Earle
12:00-12:15	Break
12:15-13:00	Philatelic knowledge in a thematic exhibit: The use of philatelic items, the treatment of philatelic material in order to fit into a thematic story told, how the philatelic material is explained and presented, by Vojtech Jankovic
13:00-13:30	Questions and Discussions

The seminar is free for the public, but the number of seats available is limited. Pre-registration is not possible. Welcome!